BECOME ACTIVE AND GO NEW WAYS!

HALFAR
Best of Bags.

TAKE A BREATH!

Get off the sofa, open the doors and get out into the fresh air! Spring lures us outside with the first sunny days, the trees are slowly becoming greener and invite you to an extensive walk or a small trekking tour. A well-filled bag with all kinds of provisions and equipment may not be missing.

However, it is also important that comfort is not neglected during long periods of carrying. It's good that our bags can be tailored to personal needs, such as good back ventilation, a cooling function, water-repellent material or even an integratable hydration system.

Whether bright sunshine, cold wet weather or briefly pouring rain - there is the right bag solution for every weather situation. You have the choice between small and large, backpack or waist bag - we have them all and thus (almost) nothing stands in the way of your next outdoor activity.

COOL

1816503 TREND

Not every backpack stays this cool. With its practical cooling function and space for cooling batteries snacks and drinks stay crisp and fresh, even if the walk should take a little longer.

THIRST QUENCHER
